What to do immediately

- 1 Mark it Lost with Find My — from another device (or icloud.com/find on any browser/computer), sign in and select the iPhone, then choose Mark As Lost. This locks the screen, disables Apple Pay, and shows a custom message with a phone number where you can be reached.
- 2 Call T-Mobile to suspend the line — use the number above. Suspending stops anyone from making calls, using data, or intercepting SMS two-factor codes on your number.
- 3 Report it to local police — ask for a copy of the police report; many insurance and phone-replacement claims require the report number.
- 4 Check your Apple ID account — at appleid.apple.com, review devices and sign out of anything unfamiliar; change your Apple ID password from a trusted device.
- 5 Notify your bank/card issuers if Apple Pay or Wallet passes were on the phone.
- 6 If you don't recover it, use Find My to Erase iPhone once you're sure it's truly gone (this remotely wipes it — do this only after you've confirmed you don't need to track it further).

Before-you-go checklist

- Stolen Device Protection turned on (Settings > Face ID & Passcode)

- Strong alphanumeric passcode set
- Find My iPhone, Find My network, and Send Last Location all enabled
- Full iCloud/Finder backup completed just before departure
- Advanced Data Protection enabled, recovery key saved somewhere other than the phone
- Lock Screen notification previews and widget access restricted
- IMEI/serial number recorded above and saved separately (e.g., emailed to yourself)

Keep this page somewhere other than your phone — printed in your bag, and as a photo or note in a separate email account.
